Documentary Film screening followed by break-out discussions

For students*, teammates, clubs and individuals including parents

February 6 at 7:00pm — MIHS Performing Arts Center (PAC)

Meet the film makers; Lauren Parsekian and Molly Thompson, hear their personal stories and participate in break-out discussions — for parents and their students*

February 7 at 7:00pm — Community Center of Mercer Island — Mercer Room

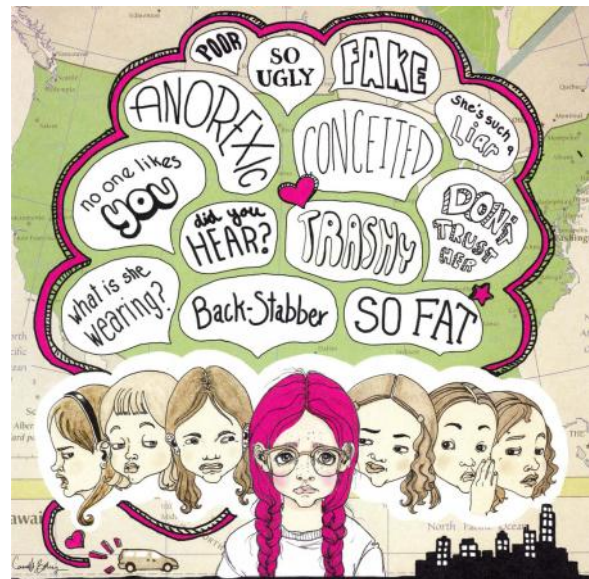

Film screening — one more opportunity for anyone who couldn't make it on the 6th

Due to mature topics, we recommend Finding Kind for students age 11 and up*

A grass roots documentary that is traveling to schools across the country to address the way girls treat each other and to help us see another way. The film makers share personal experiences & nuances of bullying, in a moving discussion to inspire us to be kinder to each other!
